I met her about a decade ago at Burda (in Germany). Jean-Paul (who I've introduced you to at TED), Steffi Czerny, Hubert Burda, and many others are there. Nora and a colleague of hers ultimately moved to NY to do a US start up for Burda. They later folded that business, and Nora started Kollabra. She is very loved by everyone who knows her. Kollabra is struggling at the moment.

Josh mentioned that she wasn't super comfortable at the ranch. I'm happy to join for gatherings she attends when I can - love her, and it would probably help put her at ease. Josh is a lucky guy. She is terrific.

Cathy Reynolds has a start up venture with a guy named Mike Saylor (sp?). They are doing identity and authentication. I guessed that this was ultimately a path to payment systems. Anyhow, they are fond of you and are likely to reach out.

Have you spoken with Marvin and Gloria lately?

Will we run into each other at TED? Rumor has it you're taking Joi and Reid to the island from there....

I'll get through the next 2 weeks and re-visit the contract from Darren. Will see what makes sense.

just had lunch with Wayne and Cathy in DC. They send their love and would love to see you in NY, Boston or DC sometime. Meghan now a junior at Harvard studying bio-medical engineering.

I talked with them about inviting Reid and Joi to the next Academy. They had already invited Reid, and now will add Joi, I think.

Had a great time with Tom Pritzker yesterday and met Josh Ramo (who is marrying a friend of mine - Nora).

I'll be in NYC briefly - night of 2/23 and part of the day 2/24. Most of 2/24 working with someone to help me get one of my writing projects resurrected toward a book.
May be free Sunday night, 2/23, or from 10:30-11:30 on 2/24.... Are you around at all?

Now heading to SF to present on Essential Self technologies (oh, yeah, I made that up!).
